

PROFILE

Adv. V. R. Manohar, President, Nagpur w.e.f. 10.10.1980
He is a Donor Life Member w.e.f. 18.09.1980

---

Mr. Manohar passed his L.L.B. examination in 1954 standing 2nd merit in Nagpur University.

Started practice in law at Nagpur in 1954 and has more than six decades of experience at the bar. Practiced most of the period in High Court with appearances in the Supreme Court of India, The High Court Judicature at Bombay and all its benches and also different High Courts in the country. He has practiced in all branches of law.

Was retainer for the Income Tax Department for a period of five years for High Court matters.

Was Dean, Law faculty, Nagpur University for three terms and member of its Executive Council for two terms.

Former President of the Vidarbha Cricket Association, Nagpur. Former Chairman of C.P.Club, Nagpur and connected with many other Educational and social organizations of Nagpur.

Adv. V R Manohar became Advocate General of Maharashtra in 1992. He is the Director and Chief Editor of All India Reporter Ltd. a pioneer law publisher of the country. He was President of the High Court Bar Association, Nagpur and was a member of the Maharashtra State bar Council for about more than 10 years and also the Chairman of Maharashtra Bar Council.